

IMPEACHMENT
OF BALLINGERDemocrats of the House Are Said to Favor It.

CHARGES MADE BY PINCHOT

Likely to Be the Basis of the Proposed Action Against the Secretary of the Interior—Representative Heflin of Alabama Is Expected to Introduce the Resolution in the House.Washington, Dec. 3.—Talk has been revived here that the Democrats of the house intend to push a resolution impeaching R. A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior.The basis of the proposed impeachment, it is said, will be charges brought against Mr. Ballinger by Gifford Pinchot and other critics of the present administration of the interior department. According to reports here the resolution of impeachment will be introduced by Representative Heflin of Alabama, an intimate friend of Representative James of Kentucky, who is a member of the Ballinger-Pinchot committee of inquiry.So far as can be learned the Democratic members of the committee of inquiry have no present intention of offering a resolution censuring Secretary Ballinger. These members will meet here. Later, when they are informed that their presence is desired by Chairman Nelson, they will hold a final conference with the majority members of the committee.Chairman Nelson and Messrs. Root, Flint, Sutherland, McCall and Olmsted of the committee were in conference all afternoon. At its conclusion Senator Nelson said that the majority report would be ready for publication next week. The day had been spent, he said, in a further exchange of views and in perfecting certain chapters of the report.Senator Nelson said that he had heard the report that a resolution of impeachment of Secretary Ballinger might be introduced in the house. "I can tell you nothing about it," he said, "You'll have to confer with our Democratic friends on this proposition."

SUPPORTS TERMINAL ROADS

Kellogg Presents Argument Before Commerce Commission.Washington, Dec. 3.—Frank B. Kellogg submitted an argument before the interstate commerce commission on the question of whether terminal roads in the Twin Cities, Duluth, Cleveland and Loraine, O., shall be considered common carriers within the meaning of the interstate commerce law and subject to participation in through rates.The question was raised at St.
Louis, where the railroads refused to allow the terminal road to participate in the through rate on the ground that the terminal road was not a common carrier, but simply a road organized and built and operated for the purpose of switching freight to the big business establishments of that city.None of the cities represented by Mr. Kellogg was a party to the case under argument, but he appeared in behalf of the terminal roads in these cities to protect their interests. If the interstate commerce commission rules that these terminal roads are common carriers and can participate in a joint rate, the manufacturers will be able to secure a lower rate on their output than if the terminals are held to be only switch lines. The latter construction of the law will subject the freight to a separate charge for switching to and from the main line.

Stock Perish in Flames.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Dec. 3.—In a fire at Lake Hallie, south of here, on Robert A. Lange's farm, one team of horses, eight milch cows and ten head of hogs were burned. It was impossible to save anything from the barn, which was half a block long. The origin of the fire is not known, but is supposed to have been caused by crossed electric wires. The loss is over $7,000, with no insurance.

Found Guilty of Murder.

Mason City, Ia., Dec. 3.—J. P. Shearer was convicted of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to the state penitentiary at Fort Madison at hard labor for life by a jury. He killed Henry Lucas on the night of July 16 last, and was arrested Sept. 11. He still protests his innocence.

Killed by Freight Train.

Winona, Minn., Dec. 3.—William Brannon, a farmer fifty-one years old, was run down by a Milwaukee freight train near Lamolite and killed, the body being found by a track walker.
Brannon was under the influence of liquor, and was hit while walking home along the track.

Fire Destroys Church.

Elk Point, S. D., Dec. 2.—The church at Burbank was burned under circumstances pointing to incendiarism.
The fire seems to have started on an outside porch, for there was evidence of it having been saturated with kerosene. The loss is $4,000. It was insured for $2,000. The church was built in 1904 under Baptist auspices and was far too large for the requirements of the field.

ROBBERS FIGHT CITIZENS

Outlaws Blow Bank Safe at Garden City, Ia., and Escape With $1,800.Garden City, Ia., Dec. 3.—Four robbers blew up the safe of the Farmers' bank here and escaped with about $1,800 after a fight with citizens, in which it is believed one or more of the outlaws was wounded, as blood spots were found in the bank.Descending upon the town shortly after midnight, the robbers before beginning operations took the precaution to cut every telephone and telegraph wire, so that the place was isolated.
The noise of the explosions aroused E. A. Nessa and his family, who live upstairs next door to the bank building. Securing a gun, Nessa opened fire on the robbers, whom he could see through the windows of the bank. The robbers returned the fire, one shot crashing through a window on the opposite side, but no one in the house was injured.The shooting soon brought others to the scene, but the robbers escaped. It is believed they fled in a buggy, as a team was seen passing through the town of Radcliffe about an hour after the raid.The vault of the bank was wrecked, but O. E. Feehan, president, says the loss is fully covered by insurance. The bank is open for business as usual.FIFTEEN MORE ARE PUT OUT OF BUSINESSSaloons in Northern Minnesota Closed.Bemidji, Minn., Dec. 3.—Special Agents Way, Quinn and Brannon closed fifteen saloons at Big Falls.
Kellier, Margie and Haupt and destroyed some liquor. The remainder was shipped out of the country to the dealers from whom it came.Bemidji is trembling, for Saturday, it is believed, will be the last day on which the saloons of the city will be permitted by the federal agents to operate. Saloon men and the residents of the city are reconciled to the closing order and believe that it will be but a question of a few hours until every barroom in the city will be closed. What action will be taken against the Bemidji brewery has not yet been outlined by the federal agents, but it is presumed by many that it will have to cease operations or at least confine itself exclusively to the city family trade of Bemidji.So far as known "Pussyfoot" Johnson is not in Bemidji or in the immediate vicinity.
The Indian agents working under orders of "Pussyfoot" Johnson have closed up forty-two saloons in the last twenty-four hours. Tenstrike is now the only wet town on the Minneapolis and International railway line in the Indian country north of here.

REV. W. J. CLEVELAND DEAD

Friend of the Dakota Sioux Passes Away in San Diego, Cal.Madison, S. D., Dec. 3.—Word has reached this city of the death of Rev.
William J. Cleveland at San Diego, Cal. Mr. Cleveland was an early missionary to the Dakota Sioux. He was a man of large stature and was given the cognomen "Tall Pine" by the Sioux. But his work had broken down his health and he came to this city to seek retirement. Here he built Grace Episcopal church.Mr. Cleveland was second cousin to Grover Cleveland and by him was appointed a member of the Sioux commission to negotiate with the Sioux when it was desired to open part of their lands for settlement. During the Sioux uprising in the early nineties Cleveland set out in winter, against the protests of friends, to try to pacify the Indians. They were overjoyed to greet him and confided their grievances without reserve. Mr.
Cleveland offered advice which was accepted and led to a speedy termination of hostilities.

Action.

Action does not always bring happiness, but there is no happiness without action.—Disraeli.QUESTION NOW LOOMS LARGETariff Reform an Issue in Campaign in England.

AN UNLOOKED FOR RESULT

May Follow Attempt by Arthur J. Balfour to Remove Tariff Reform From the Immediate Field of Politics—His Policy Appears to Have Sundered His Party.London, Dec. 2.—There is a possibility of an unlooked for result in the attempt by A. J. Balfour, the opposition leader, to remove tariff reform from the immediate field of politics.The question looms larger than ever in the campaign, in so much that Mr.
Balfour himself, in a speech at Reading, was fain to explain that his party had not altered its views on this subject and that tariff reform was still a chief plank in the party's constructive policy, but, he explained, the Unionists needed to obtain the formal and explicit consent of the people thereto.
The policy of referendum, he said, was consistent with the true idea of popular government.The fact is that Mr. Balfour's pronouncement on Nov. 23 that he was willing to submit tariff reform to a referendum has rather sundered than knit his party and supplied the Liberals with another effective argument against tariff reform, namely, that Mr.
Balfour has been compelled to side-track it.The interest in the speeches centered in Premier Asquith's reply to the opposition leader. This was delivered at a great meeting at Wolver-hampton. The premier said:"We are living in times of rapid movement, when it is a relief to wake any morning and not find some fresh part of the constitution reconstructed."

Balfour's Attitude Unique.

He described Mr. Balfour's "turnabout face" on the questions of the reform of the house of lords and tariff reform as unique—almost indecent.
He said he could not imagine a greater caricature of the referendum than putting a few abstract questions to the people without concrete embodiment of their proposals. If any one but a sane and responsible statesman had contemplated such a scheme he would be called a madman.After a study of the workings of the referendum in foreign countries, the premier continued, he had arrived at the conclusion that it had proved a most unsatisfactory and disappointing method of ascertaining public opinion.Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary, addressed several meetings at Dundee and will deliver two speeches at Cheshire. From there he will go by special train to Grimsby, where he will speak at midnight, replying to a speech which Mr. Balfour will make earlier in the evening. In order to ascertain the nature of Mr.
Balfour's address special relays of motor cars will convey a verbatim report of this to the home secretary at Sheffield, enabling him to study the address on the train. After his speech at Grimsby Mr. Churchill will return to Manchester, where he will speak on Saturday afternoon. He will go from there to Chester for another Liberal demonstration on Saturday night—a heavy twenty-four hours' programme.
The home secretary will have a special guard of detectives against suffragist attentions.

POUNDS A CHILD ON A ROCK

Insane Act of Woman May Result in Boy's Death.Granite Falls, Minn., Dec. 2.—Inviting her five-year-old son to go with her, Mrs. G. Halvorson, who was released from the insane asylum at St.
Peter recently, grabbed the child and pounded his head on a rock until she had fractured his skull and the brains were exposed.Mrs. Halvorson was committed to the asylum last summer, having gone insane over religion, and since that time her husband made several attempts to have her released. She was allowed to return to her home last week and was taken to see her children, who were staying at her sister's home in the country.With the cunning of the insane she lured the child to a place back the barn, where she tried to take its life.

Florence Nightingale.

There is a story that after the return to England of the troops from the Crimea Lord Stratford at a dinner suggested that those present should write on a piece of paper the name of the person whose Crimean reputation would endure longest. When the votes came to be examined it was found that not a single soldier had received a vote. Every paper bore the same two words—Florence Nightingale.The "Lady With the Lamp" used to relate the following story: "Calling one day on one of her humble neighbors, she was surprised to see the usually tidy cottage in a state of great disorder. 'Why, Mrs. —,' said Miss Nightingale, 'what is wrong with you?' I never saw your home looking like this.' 'Beg your pardon, miss,' said the abashed woman, 'but, you see, I am expecting the visiting lady, and I see my place looking clean and tidy she'd think I didn't need no helpin'!"

INCREASE IN WAGESEmployees of Sixty Roads Make Demands.Chicago, Dec. 3.—Representatives of approximately 55,000 conductors and trainmen employed on the sixty railroads west of Chicago, who have demanded an increase in wages averaging about 15 per cent, are holding daily conferences with the general managers in presenting their arguments for the advance in pay and improvements in working conditions. It is estimated that the new scales asked by the men will exceed in amount those asked by the engineers recently, which aggregate nearly $5,000,000.The conferences are being held in the offices of the Chicago General Managers' association and have been in progress since Monday.The employees are represented by eighty-five general chairmen of the organization on different roads, two from each road in the case of the larger systems, and by A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, and W. L. Lee, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.A. W. Trenholm, general manager of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha road, is chairman of the committee of general managers, which is conducting the negotiations. Every railroad running west of a line from New Orleans to Fort Williams, Ont., including the main line of the Illinois Central, is involved in the demands of the men.Returns from the strike vote being taken on the Western roads by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers since the breaking off of negotiations with the managers several weeks ago are being sent from the various roads to the headquarters of the organizations in Cleveland and will be assembled and counted at a meeting in Chicago Dec. 10. It is reported that the engineers of the Burlington, Northwestern, St. Paul, Rock Island and other roads running out of Chicago already have completed their votes, showing 99 per cent in favor of a strike unless their demands for a 15 per cent advance are granted, and it has been taken for granted from the first that a similar ratio would be shown for all the roads. The railroads offered an advance of about 9 per cent.

smothered to death by the smoke from flames which broke out in her ab-mate accidentally. She had been subject to headaches and mistook the poi-

Queer Vital Statistics.

Yankton, S. D., Dec. 3.—The vital also thirteen.

Return from Europe

James Gardner and his son, George, returned last Wednesday from a three-months tour of Ireland, England, Scotland and France, much improved and impressed by their pleasant trip. They landed in Queenstown, Mr. Gardner, Sr., spending a few days with his relatives in the country where he was born. Both gentlemen have received much pleasure and profit and have put the trip down as one of the pleasures of their lives. George Gardner, who is a promising lawyer of this city, says he was much impressed with the whole legal procedure of the courts of justice there. While in London he was passed by ticket into Old Bailey and spent a day as an interested spectator at the recent Crippen trial.In speaking of Dr. Crippen Mr.
Gardner said that while the prisoner did not possess the appearance of a degenerate, yet there was nothing prepossessing about his personality.
He spent one day in the criminal courts of Liverpool, witnessing the calling of a jury, the trial of a man for wilful murder and the judge putting on the black cap and sentencing the prisoner. The case commenced at 10 a.m. and closed at 6:15 p.m.Mr. Gardner thinks that Ireland is in a better condition than is commonly reported and that the future prospects of Erin look bright. Both visitors were much impressed with everything they saw, but were glad to arrive home safely.

YOUNG HOMESTEADER SLAIN

Found Dead in His Shack With Bullet Through His Lung.Daviston, S. D., Dec. 2.—Gus Banick, a young homesteader of this county, lies dead with a bullet through his left lung, while Arthur W. Lowry, a neighbor, is under arrest charged with his murder. All this, it is believed, is because a young woman of the neighborhood had told Lowry that Gus should hereafter be her "steady company," a distinction Lowry had previously enjoyed. All three occupied adjoining homestead claims about four miles west of Date, a rural postoffice of Perkins county, and their shacks are within a distance of eighty rods or less from each other.Lowry had been keeping company with the girl several months and went to her shack to engage her company for the meeting of a literary society at Date. He found Banick there ahead of him and was informed that she had already made an engagement with the latter for the evening, and more than that, he was to be her "steady" for the future.Evening came and the society met, but it was noted that Banick was absent from the meeting. Some of those who were present passed Banick's shack on their way home, and, seeing a light burning, stopped to inquire the cause of his absence. There was no response to their knock and they pushed the door open to find the owner of the shack lying dead just inside the doorway, with a bullet hole in his chest, and his clothing saturated with blood.Investigation revealed a bullet hole through a panel of the door about the height of the wound in Banick's body.
Another bullet was found imbedded in the wall of the room, opposite the door.Lowry asserts that he went to the claim of a sister about three miles distant, where he spent the night. It was at his sister's claim that the officers found him. His sister was visiting at neighbors on the evening in question, and there was no one at her place when he arrived, or for two or three hours later, covering the time in which the killing is supposed to have taken place.While the popular sentiment has settled upon Lowry as the author of the crime, his brother, sister and other close friends declare their faith in his innocence and will assist in providing the means for his defense. His reputation has always been good.Houses For Rent by Nettleton

St. Paul Jurist Consults With the President.

STILL UNDER CONSIDERATION

Reported That Minnesotan May Yet Be Appointed to One of the Vacancies on the Supreme Court Bench.
Senate Progressives Closely Scanning Records of Candidates.Washington, Dec. 3.—The presence of Judge Walter Sanborn of St. Paul at the White House gave rise to the report that he was still under consideration for appointment to one of the vacancies on the bench of the United States supreme court. According to statements made at the White House, President Taft has a high regard for the St. Paul jurist, but does not regard him as available owing to the fact that he has passed on litigation that will have to be decided by the supreme court.It is the understanding here that the president conferred with Judge Sanborn relative to the qualifications of other judges who have been put forward by their friends for vacancies on the supreme bench. Judge Sanborn and W. D. McHugh of Omaha, who is under consideration for a place on the supreme bench, were luncheon guests of the president and Mrs. Taft. Judge and Mrs. Sanborn accompanied the president and Mrs. Taft to Fort Meyer, where the party witnessed the weekly drills of the troops stationed at that place.

Did Not Discuss the Subject.

Senator Nelson was a caller at the White House. He replied in the negative when asked if he had urged the nomination of Judge Sanborn to the supreme bench. "I did not discuss the subject with the president," he said.
Mr. Nelson added that he had told the president that the majority report of the Ballinger-Pinchot committee would be submitted to congress next week.In conversation with friends later in the day, President Taft said that Senator Nelson had called to talk about the appointment of a Minnesotan to the commerce court. The president did not indicate whose name was mentioned in this connection. Mr.
Nelson would throw no light on the matter.The possibility of trouble in the United States senate over the confirmation of President Taft's appointments to the supreme bench is being suggested. Certain senate progressives already are scanning closely the records of several of the supreme court candidates in regard to the income tax.

CANADIAN NAVY ASSURED

Four Cruisers Will Be Built by the Dominion.Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 3.—The triumph of the government over the opposition in the house of commons on the naval policy and the overwhelming defeat of resolutions declaring that there should be an appeal to the people before the creation of the Canadian navy means that contracts for the construction of Canadian war vessels will be let shortly.The contract will call for the construction of four cruisers of the improved Bristol class and six torpedo boat destroyers of the improved river class. They are all to be built in Canada and as there are no yards at present in the Dominion capable of doing the work negotiations are in progress with several firms of British shipbuilders for the establishment of such yards.There is keen competition between six British firms, as the contract for all the vessels will be placed with one firm. It means the establishment of that firm in Canada, where the demand for both war and commercial shipping is bound to grow.

Deadwood Invites Stockmen.

Deadwood, S. D., Dec. 3.—A parade followed by an old fashioned barbecue on Main street will be a feature of the meeting of the Black Hills stockmen which will be held here Dec. 17. Invitations to all stockmen in and around the Hills have been extended and a good representation is expected. President Franklin of the Deadwood Business Men's club has taken the arrangements in hand and expects to make the meeting a success. Its main object is to form a permanent association of stockmen in the Hills and to discuss such legislation as is considered necessary at the coming meeting of the legislature.

ama canal; Commodore Brown, Captain Scott of the United States Steel mayor of Pittsburgh, and others of the party on board, entered from the Atlantic side, went up as far as the Gatun lock and returned.

What Brainerd Men Think of the Recent Great Convention Held in Our City

In an interview this morning with W. H. Gemmell, the general manager of the Minnesota & International Ry., he says the following regarding the convention:

"Many visitors came to me and congratulated Brainerd on the way they had planned to take care of the strangers and on the great success that had been achieved in that direction. I have not heard a single word of criticism from any one. In my judgment, the convention was a success in every way. It accomplished the purpose for which it was held.

"It has placed the needs of northern Minnesota before the people in a way that will inevitably bring about the justice which is our due and for which we are contending. It has also demonstrated the fact that Brainerd has a commercial club that can do things and much may be expected of it in the future.

"The excellent way in which the Ransford and other hotels handled the crowd shows that we have a right to claim to be a convention city and we must see to it that we secure others from time to time.

"The special edition of the local daily paper was a credit to its proprietors and to the city. Brainerd has received a recognition in this and other states by reason of this convention that will be of everlasting value to it."

In a short interview A. J. Halsted, president of the Commercial Club, said: "The convention was a hummer and in every way exceeded the expectations of the most optimistic members of the Commercial Club. The unqualified success of the club in handling the convention shows what the club can do and is doing for Brainerd; and it also proves that Brainerd is a good convention city and that we should reach out after more such big meetings.

"Our citizens will be well repaid for all their labor and expense in the magnificent advertising this meeting will give the city."

Carl Zapffe, vice president of the Commercial Club and the secretary-treasurer of the local development association, said: "The convention was a great and successful event. All that had been planned as to business was satisfactorily accomplished. The attendance was as great as was expected and I believe our own citizens were convinced that our advance statements were founded on facts.

"Everybody was greatly pleased with the welcome Brainerd extended, and our visitors never once registered a complaint. I know that they left with a feeling that Brainerd is an ideal place for conventions, and I hope that this convention is but the forerunner of many more. Our hotels made a great reputation for themselves and the town, and when people actually tell you that they were surprised at the service, then we have reasons to be proud.

"But Brainerd is also thankful that such an intelligent and orderly class of people paid their tribute to this city, and welcomes them again upon any occasion that it may be our good fortune to greet them.

"To the Brainerd Commercial Club fell the task of handling this convention and I do not see that any detail was ignored that might have marred the conference. The Club as a whole acted as the reception committee and most of the members were on hand to perform their part. The Club is an integral part of the machinery that builds up the town, and there

SUPERIOR, WIS., DELEGATES

Headed by Mayor F. R. Crumpton, and Appearing in the Interests of the Tri-State Fair

Superior, Wis., was represented by four members of the Superior Commercial Club who attended the Northern Minnesota Development Association meeting, appearing in the interests of the Tri-State fair. Mayor F. R. Crumpton, of Superior, said: "Your northern Minnesota has the same problems to work out as northern Wisconsin. You have the same cut over lands, as well as unsettled portions."

Another enthusiastic member was T. H. Fairfax, who said that the interests of northern Minnesota and Wisconsin were identical. Both regions have great mining interests and both wished to attract more settlers. The other members of the party were Messrs. W. H. Webb and Frank E. Spring.

They created a most favorable interest in the Tri-State fair project, a fair to be given jointly by Northern Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. All four are honorary members of the development association and they were pleased at the good fellowship shown them and the hospitable treatment accorded them.

THE RESOLUTIONS THEY ADOPTED

Reapportionment, Just and Equitable, Imperatively Demanded by the Convention

GOV. EBERHART COMMENDED

Consolidation of Boards Urged—1 Mill Road Tax Proposed—Sec. Mackenzie Thanked

The following is a condensed statement of the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development Association in this city yesterday.

The Association demands imperatively that a just and equitable reapportionment be made at the coming session of the legislature to take effect immediately upon its passage that shall remedy existing conditions on a basis which will give to all parts of the state equal representation both in the senate and the house according to the population shown by the United States census in 1910. Representation under the new apportionment should not increase the present membership of the house and senate. In the event the 1911 legislature fails to pass a reapportionment measure the governor is asked to call a special session for the express purpose of passing a reapportionment measure. Governor Eberhart is warmly commended for the decisive stand he took at the convention in favor of reapportionment.

A constitutional amendment is asked for a one mill state road tax and that a state road tax of one-quarter of a mill as authorized by the constitution be levied by the next legislature to be expended by the state highway commission and that the legislature make appropriations thereafter to enable the commission to employ a corps of competent men to instruct the local road authorities in scientific road making.

The following state boards, bureaus and offices should be abolished, namely: the forest commission, forestry department, state highway commission, state drainage board, bureau of immigration, game and fish commission and state land department and a new department created to be known as the Internal Improvement and Conservation Commission, consisting of three divisions; the division of forests and mines, of development and of settlement.

The division of forests and mines to include fire patrol, care and promotion of existing forests on reserve agricultural lands, the reforestation of non-agricultural lands, timber trespass, fish and game, soil survey and minerals.

The division of development is to include roads and bridges, drainage and preparation of land for designated settlement.

The division of settlement is to include publicity, colonization and demonstration work through cooperation with the state university.

Authority should be given the state highway commission to cooperate with the several counties to the end that the commission may furnish financial and other assistance in the construction of roads and bridges along such drainage ditches.

That a sufficient amount of the bonds of foreign states now in the state treasury be sold by the state investment board to supply the demand of the counties of the state for financing drainage projects, building roads, bridges and school houses and other public purposes.

That unsold state lands should be subject to taxation for local road, bridge and school purposes and that a committee of five be appointed to draft the law.

That state lands be sold once a month.

A system of rural township graded schools is recommended, that the secondary agricultural schools be extended, that the elements of agriculture be added to the list of subjects required for the certification of all teachers of rural schools.

The policy of the university of Minnesota in bringing the results of its experiments to the people is commended.

The state forestry board is asked to be given full authority over all forest protective measures upon state forest reserves and all lands owned by the state. That a trained forester and deputies be employed and that the legislature appropriate $200,000 for such purpose.

The state is asked to furnish settlers with dynamite to clear their lands.

The department of agriculture is asked to inaugurate a corn contest in the state.

Lady inspectors are asked to be assigned to duty in the woman's and children's department of the labor bureau for the protection of young girls entering the three large cities from the country districts in search of employment.

The press is thanked for advancing the interests of the Northern Minnesota Development Association.

Secretary W. R. Mackenzie, of the association, is thanked for his untiring efforts in behalf of the organization.

The delegates expressed, in conclusion, their appreciation of the courteous, hospitable treatment accorded them by the citizens and especially the Commercial Club of Brainerd and the officers of the Crow Wing County Development Association.

ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICES

Will be Held at the Opera House on Sunday Afternoon at Three O'clock

The annual memorial services of the local Elks lodge will be held at the opera house on Sunday afternoon, the program commencing at three o'clock. Five deaths have occurred during the past year and the order mourns the loss of W. H. Koop, F. J. Murphy, Adam A. Armstrong, B. B. Tisdale and Charles Tedford.

The public is cordially invited to attend the services, which will be of a most impressive character and in keeping with the solemnity of the occasion.

The program is as follows: Processional—Graham's Orchestra Opening Ceremonies—By the Lodge Opening Ode—The Audience With Orchestra Accompaniment Prayer—Rev. Jos. R. Alten Song—Miss Maud Hooper Death's Harvest for 1910—Past Exalted Ruler J. J. Nolan Song—E. H. Laughton Double Quartette—Young Ladies of Brainerd High School Memorial Address—

Judge Oscar Hallam, St. Paul Song—Bro. S. F. Alderman Closing Ceremonies—By the Lodge Closing Ode—Rev. Jos. R. Alten Benediction—Graham's Orchestra Recessional—

43 SALOONS ARE CLOSED

Deputies Brannon, Sero, Way and Patten and Quinn, of Brainerd, Close Up Places

IN INDIAN DRY COUNTRY

Ten Strike's Three Saloons To be Closed Monday—Nothing Definite About Brainerd

In an interview this noon with James M. Quinn, a local deputy operating under W. E. Johnson, the renowned "Pussy Foot," he stated that 43 saloons were closed December 1 and 2 in the Indian district extending from Bemidji north to Big Falls, close to the Canadian boundary line. Six saloons were closed at Big Falls, two at Margie, two at Gemmill and all places at Northome, Kelliber and Blackduck, leaving only three at Ten Strike which will be closed on Monday.

The deputies engaged in this work are Messrs. Quinn, Way, Brannon, Sero and Patten. At Bemidji numerous bottles of whiskey were taken from the lumber jacks. A car load of liquor was returned to the twin city wholesale houses.

At Georgetown, a saloon which had opened contrary to closing orders, was entered and six barrels of whiskey, cases of gin and beer, were smashed and thrown out. Nothing definite is known about Brainerd and many think it will be the last place to be closed.

WHAT WAS THOUGHT OF THE CONVENTION

Short Interviews with Prominent Men at the Great Development Congress

DISPLAY MUCH ENTHUSIASM

Pres. W. A. McGonagle, of the D. M. & N. Ry., Formerly Lived in Brainerd

The convention adjourned at 3:45 yesterday afternoon and the great Brainerd convention, unparalleled for enthusiasm and harmony, has passed into history.

Below are given a few expressions of delegates in attendance, expressing their opinions of the gathering. These are frank interviews and to the point:

W. A. McGonagle, president Duluth, Missabe & Northern Ry.: "I began my railway career in Brainerd in 1881 as draftsman of Gen. A. Anderson of the Northern Pacific railway. Twenty-nine years have made some changes in your town. I am surprised at your growth and glad to see the substantial buildings and marked improvements on all sides."

Representative D. P. O'Neill, of Thief River Falls: "This was a fine convention. Brainerd did itself proud. It handled the crowd well." Ex-Congressman Eddy: "Fine convention. You have a good hall to speak in."

H. H. Dunn, of Albert Lea, candidate for speaker: "I wish to express my pleasure at having been at this great convention."

C. A. Prescott, La Porte, editor of Laporte News: "This convention will do lots of good."

Major H. V. Eva, secretary Duluth Commercial Club: "Best convention ever held. Will accomplish a lot of good for northern Minnesota."

M. N. Koll, Cass Lake: "There was every disposition to have harmony and taboo all things tending to create controversy."

C. A. Luster, president Duluth Commercial Club: "I have just arrived from St. Paul and Chicago. This convention is a booster."

J. H. O'Neill, Park Rapids, sergeant at arms: "I was at Bemidji and at Crookston. There was more enthusiasm and more interest shown at Brainerd."

State Auditor Iverson: "It's a grand convention of thoughtful, earnest men who have at heart the great question of developing the northern Minnesota empire. With all working for these ends beneficial results will be accomplished."

H. J. Hage, of Deerwood Commercial Club: "This convention will be productive of much good."

C. A. Moody, of Warroad: "It is generally conceded that we should have the next convention. We are building a $75,000 hotel and have a large opera house. Duluth is entitled to the spring convention while we should get the fall convention."

Carl Neuman: "Yes, you can pin a Brainerd badge on me. I am for Brainerd and the convention."

M. F. Crosby, of Crosby: "Greatest convention that ever happened."

P. J. Russell, of Bemidji, member of state forestry board: "This was a convention of representative men of northern Minnesota who had the interests of northern Minnesota at heart. I wish to compliment Gov. Eberhart on the speech he made."

Oison Skau, of Deerwood: "Did you notice the big banners on our special train from Deerwood? I painted them and did a good job too."

Rufus P. Morton, representative of the 45th district and a colleague of R. C. Dunn: "This convention was a most interesting convention and was a most profitable session."

Geo. A. Mackenzie of 21st legislative district, Gaylord, Sibley county:

"I was in the midst of a lawsuit and I got an attorney to take my place. I wouldn't have missed this convention for anything. I have attended all the meetings and endorse the stand taken by this convention. I do a lot of hunting in your north country and thus live up to my appellation, 'The Apostle of Outdoor Life.'"

Geo. A. Ralph, of St. Paul, chief engineer of state drainage ditches: "A good thing for the whole state, especially in regard to reapportionment."

Secretary W. R. Mackenzie, who was a whole convention in himself and was the man who was continuously on the job: "The convention was an unqualified success. For enthusiasm it exceeded the Crookston meeting. The address of Gov. Eberhart on reapportionment stamps him as one of the firm friends of justice to the cause of northern Minnesota. The handling of the convention was very creditable to the local development association and the Hotel Ransford, which was headquarters for the majority of the delegates, did itself proud."

Wallace G. Nye, of the Minneapolis Commercial Club, who was called on for a speech at the convention: "Minneapolis is heartily in accord with the purposes of northern Minnesota. Hennepin county and Minneapolis business men give their moral support to this movement and in every way seek to cooperate with the objects as outlined in the resolutions adopted."

C. W. Bouck, of Royalton, representative-elect of this district: "This is one of the best things for Brainerd that ever happened. Every one appreciates the courtesies extended by the people of Brainerd."

Former Lieutenant Governor Gilman, of St. Cloud: "I fully concur in what my friend Bouck says. I know this country intimately, for I have spent a large part of my time exploring it. In sixty-eight and sixty-nine I was senator of a district which took in three-fifths of this northern state. So you can imagine how proud I feel to see the development of northern Minnesota and the grand convention you had here."

Col. Freeman Thorp: "This was a most successful convention. I am pleased to see how my suggestions were followed, that this convention should not engage in the discussion of details in which we might differ, but to adopt policies on which we could all agree. The good work inaugurated here will be carried on."

Supt. K. M. Nicoles, of the Northern Pacific railway: "This is a dandy bunch and certainly a good meeting."

Mayor J. U. Williams, of Baudette: "This convention was a splendid success in every way. Baudette is being rebuilt, over 125 buildings being up now. Spooner is also building, and we are all getting housed for the winter. We have a most energetic commercial club which a fire cannot depress, for Middleton and myself are delegates from the club."

C. R. Middleton, president of the Baudette Commercial Club, in his speech at the convention: "We feel particularly grateful to Duluth, to northern Minnesota, in fact the whole United States, as well as southern Canada, for the aid extended us in our distress. I second the nomination for Duluth as the next convention city."

Judge D. A. Lawrence, of Two Harbors: "I was a member of the resolutions committee at Crookston and the secretary of the committee at Brainerd and I took a firm stand to keep out all resolutions pertaining to political or personal matters which would not be of interest to Minnesota as a whole. I worked for harmony."

N. S. Hillman of Two Harbors, the only public ownership representative in Minnesota: "I am exactly in accordance with the views expressed here, and glad to see the harmony apparent on all sides. We are all pulling the same way here, regardless of party, for the common good of northern Minnesota."

Anton Borgen, of Duluth, representative of the 50th district: "This is a good thing for northern Minnesota, and it certainly was a good meeting."

H. J. Maxfield, of Wadena, president of the association: "This meeting was a success in every way. I am satisfied we will get reapportionment. We have our work for the winter mapped out and if the present program is carried out we shall get a large portion of what we want in the way of legislation. I look for our legislative committees to be able to accomplish a great deal."

F. J. McPartlin, of International Falls, the man who made the motion switching all resolutions to the resolutions committee: "This convention crystallized things in such concrete form that no one has any doubt about the attitude of northern Minnesota. This proposed commission plan for handling various subjects will form a basis for working out the various issues with which the Northern Minnesota Development Association has been struggling since its organization."

Joseph W. Beek, secretary of the Jobbers and Manufacturers Association of St. Paul: "This was a grand convention and I am pleased to see the good feeling and good fellowship apparent on all sides. St. Paul is interested in this northern country and we are glad to see it grow and do everything possible to assist in its development."

CUYUNA IRON ORE CO.

Superior Institution Offered 30 Cents A Ton for Iron on Its Rabbit Lake Holdings

The Superior Telegram contains news of the possible development of more ore lands near Little Rabbit lake and reads as follows:

"Reports are current to the effect that the Cuyuna Iron Ore Company, a Superior institution, owning valuable iron lands on the shores of Little Rabbit Lake on the new ore range, held a meeting a few days ago to consider an offer made by a big steel company."

"It is said that the concern was offered 30 cents per ton for the iron mining on its holdings, with a minimum of 50,000 tons a year and a substantial cash payment upon taking over the property."

"The stockholders of the Cuyuna company are now considering the proposition and may take some action shortly."

You Can Work Near a Window in winter when you have a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a portable radiator which can be moved to any part of a room, or to any room in a house. When you have a

Absolutely smokeless and odorless you do not have to work close to the stove, which is usually far from the window. You can work where you wish, and be warm. You can work on dull winter days in the full light near the window, without being chilled to the bone.

The Perfection Oil Heater quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap, put in like a cork in a bottle, is attached by a chain. This heater has a cool handle and a damper top.

The Perfection Oil Heater has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged and can be unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

DYSPEPSIA SURELY GOES

Heartburn, Indigestion, Sourness, Gas and all Stomach Misery Vanishes in Five Minutes

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, belching, gas on stomach, heartburn, headaches from stomach, nausea, bad breath, water brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or sleepless nights or headache or stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapiesin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia. There is nothing better for gas on the stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a stomach headache.

You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

ADDITIONAL CORRESPONDENTS

Minneapolis Tribune and an Agricultural Paper Also Represented at the Convention

The Minneapolis Tribune was well represented at the convention and sent here its correspondent, Ralston Goss, and its genial artist, Carl W. Rawson. Mr. Rawson is a cartoonist of ability, able to immediately grasp the characteristics of a man. Thursday night he sketched Senator-elect Col. C. D. Johnson as he presided at the evening session of the congress.

A new correspondent was M. C. Cutting, representing the "Farmer," of St. Paul, who paid particular attention to the morning's discussion of soil survey.

This made an array of over 15 correspondents and two artists to spread to every part of the country the proceedings of the Brainerd convention.

On Thursday Walter Hard, correspondent of the Superior Telegram, took a flash light picture of the vast assemblage and this interesting picture will appear in the progressive Superior Telegram.

This city, by the way, sent four honorary delegates to represent the Tri State fair, their mayor of Superior, the Hon. F. R. Crompton, also W. H. Webb, Frank Spring and T. H. Fairfield. A complete interview with these gentlemen will be given in this paper.
